Conference Information

Join us in celebration of the Joining Voices – Healing the Healers Native American Prevention Program Sharing Conference where you can network and learn about substance abuse prevention. The conference begins the evening of August 3 and has been designed to provide participants opportunities to:

- Learn about specific prevention programs and strategies that are being implemented with Native American youth audiences.
- Learn about evidence-based programs, principles, and practices.
- Talk with others who are interested in making prevention programs work effectively and efficiently.
- Strengthen a good path of life for youth.
- Strengthen connections among prevention programs throughout Native American Nations.
- Prepare youth to become good elders.
- Learn about wellbriety programs and strategies for Native American youth.

The conference registration fee will be $50.

(Registration includes one adult and up to three youth.)
